A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL STEALING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

No Flag but the Old Flag, the Red, White and Blue, [illegible]

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 15, 1864.

Shoddy.

Since the commencement of the civil war the word "shoddy" has become significant of many things, while before the war it was a merely technical phrase used in woolen manufacture. Our Salem friends can easily learn its meaning if they look through the basement of the woolen factory, unless things have changed of late years.

When shaving and dressing cassimere, [illegible] the fine ends shaven off are saved and sacked, for shipment to the States, where the stuff, though utterly useless, commands some fifteen [illegible] twenty-five cents per pound, and is carefully mixed up with good wool, and spun into threads to be woven into good looking cloth. When the material is made up, and we wear it awhile the [illegible] comes sifting out, forming in bunches where it gathers, in sleeves or skirts of coats, bottoms of pants or corners of vests. Probably most of our male readers recognize that they have been more or less victimized by "shoddy" all their lives, and in many cases they may now be "packing" more or less of the article about their clothes. But since the war commenced, and contracts from the Government have enriched many men in different branches of manufacture, there is no doubt that the same principle of knavery has extended to all the ramifications of trade.

The man who sold the Government steamships or vessels of war, patched up any old craft that had a stern and a bow, or could boast of a smoke stack, and foisted it off upon the Government, by any knavish trick possible.

Humanity is a poor article at best, and it is not surprising that the highest officers of State have been suspected of peculation, while the common world has considered it (with a few honorable exceptions) their sworn duty to themselves and their children to cheat Uncle Sam in everything they undertook to do for him. Every article the soldier could need, to eat, drink or wear, or for any possible use, was—for at least awhile—subject to deterioration. It was considered no crime to rob, to furnish material of war that would render our guns powerless in time of battle; that soldiers' shoes were found worthless on the march; that their food was found damaged when far from the source of supplies in the enemy's country; or that their blankets turned to "shoddy" in the first drenching storm. There were creatures vile enough to do these things, and only blush when the crime was so palpable, that they were caught in its commission.

Words cannot express the good man's righteous horror at such acts, and their condemnation has been freely bestowed on the man, in high or low position, who engaged in this wholesale robbery and imposition.

At the Summer watering places and fashionable resorts, these "shoddy" fortunes are flaunted before the world, and the vulgar parvenu, who was yesterday a clown, and is in gaudy plumage the more a clown to-day, struts with his cackling brood, a candidate for admission into the circle of the upper ten.

"Codfish aristocracy" is on the rise, and the Simon pure aristocracy—of ancient name or of acknowledged intellect; of those whose olden prestige was a power on change, or in the forum, or whose career affirms the proverb that "the pen is mightier than the sword"—is outdazzled by the gilding, and outshone by the spendthrift equipage of those whose fortunes were lately allied to coarse and vulgar pursuits.

The modern Democrats sneer at "shoddy" in as contemptuous a manner as they can possibly invent; but their insinuations that the Union party is composed of "shoddy" is as unjust as it is ungenerous to the most devoted and reliable adherents of latter-day Democracy.

There is something unjust about it to themselves. We do not like it, and we will instance one single case as an example:

A gentleman who had accumulated a considerable fortune in Oregon—counted before "shoddy" added so greatly to his "pile"—went East some years ago, and since the war commenced has been engaged in filling contracts for the Government. His case shows that Uncle Samuel was not strict in giving contracts only to his friends, and so refutes that slander too.

Not long since he wrote on to a friend that soon he should retire from trade with a princely fortune, and his antecedents will not incline many to doubt that he missed no good chance to make his contract pay.

We instance him because the journals of the opposition—the McClellan press of the State—sounded it forth in trumpet notes that our friend alluded to above supported Little Mac for the Presidency. "Shoddy" counted so well for them when they heralded his praises as a "shrewd practical business man," and they felt so good over his sympathy with them, that we are inclined to resent any insult they may now offer him, or any other man [illegible] a McClellan man, of course, in the way of strictures upon "shoddy."

Honolulu News.—From the Commercial Advertiser, Honolulu, we learn that at that date (Oct. 8th,) the weather was very warm there. They claim to have had an early glimpse at a comet. Iron works were in progress of erection at that place. The capacity of the sugar refining works was being doubled by additions and improvements.

The Commercial claims that letter writers from that point make themselves ridiculous by not being well posted.

Misrepresentations Corrected.

Portland, Nov. 9, 1864.

[illegible] Some of the wonderful [illegible] of the Union cause [illegible] Two objects [illegible] The cause of truth and justice will be [illegible], and guns will be spiked which otherwise may hereafter be used.

Last Spring, Rev. Wm. Roberts wrote and published in the [illegible] an article on "The Union of the [illegible] and civil office," which was [illegible] bear heavily against one who had been very [illegible] active in support of the [illegible]. The article was approved [illegible] a socialist Union paper, and [illegible] published [illegible] Albany [illegible] leading Democratic [illegible] journals. At the June election Mr. Roberts' communication was industriously used to gain votes for the Democratic party. [illegible] published in that vile sheet, the [illegible] President of [illegible] The [illegible] papers named took occasion in publishing it to denounce me personally, in terms of [illegible]. True, the Advocate has published a full and unanswerable refutation of Mr. [illegible] misrepresentations, but these papers were very clear of republishing the reply. I call attention to some of these false statements. Mr. Roberts says:

"Every effective elder of the M. E. Church has, under all the solemnities of an oath, promised 'to devote himself wholly to God and his work.' He has responded affirmatively to these words: 'And do not mend our rules, but keep them; above all, if you labor with us in the Lord's vineyard, it is needful you should do that part of the work which we advise at those times and places which we judge most for His glory.'

"These are but a small part of our significant ordination vows. No effective elder can be loyal to them, and at the same time be President, or Senator, or Governor.

"And we humbly ask, if a man is false to these vows, will he be true to a Congressional oath?"

Two quotations are here given from the Discipline. The first is from page 80; the second from pages 61 and 62. "These," the writer says, "are but a small part of our significant ordination vows." There are no part of our ordination vows, nor [illegible] are they. All the ordination vows of deacons and elders, with the ritual of ordination, as revised by Rev. Bishop Clark in Salem, last August, in ordaining both elders and deacons, are found in the Discipline, from page 187 to page 201, and the language quoted by Mr. Roberts as a "part of our significant ordination vows," is not found in the ordination vows, nor in the ritual of ordination. How he could so misrepresent the Discipline of the Church, after an experience of more than twenty [illegible] years as a leading minister, and how, if he were loyal to his country, he could at such a crisis of her history put forth such misrepresentations, which he might well have known the enemies of the Government would use (and which they did abundantly use) against those who were laboring, with some effect, to uphold the [illegible] and laws, are questions easier asked than answered. If charity would suggest an answer creditable to Mr. Roberts' heart, the answer would be damaging to his understanding. A similar, perhaps I may say an equal, divergence from truth appears when the usage and sentiments of the Church on this subject are given. Mr. Roberts says:

"The idea we oppose is an unusual thing. In thirty years, only three cases have come under our observation, and all these cases have been signal failures. One of them was thus noticed in the Troy Daily Gazette of May 2d, 1839:

"Methodist Conference in New Jersey. This body closed its session day before yesterday. The subject of Manning Force running for Congress last year was brought up. The Rev. gentleman frankly declared, with expressions of deep regret, that he should not have accepted the nomination had he been aware that a rule existed discountenancing such conduct.

"A resolution passed, declaring that any clergyman who should hereafter become a candidate for the Legislature or for Congress, would receive the general disapprobation of the Conference."

"There is no reason to doubt that this is the universal judgment and feeling of the M. E. Church on this subject, in all its bounds."

This is remarkable indeed, "thirty years, only three cases!" "All these signal failures!" Has Mr. Roberts been ignorant of the facts that Dr. Cartwright, Dr. Havens, Dr. Lunt, Rev. Mr. Barrows, were elected to the State Legislature or to Congress and served their country in that capacity and received their appointments in their own Conference and that they still retain their relation to the Conference as men of great moral worth? Was he unaware that at the very time he wrote his diatribe there were, at least, a member of Conference in the Massachusetts State Senate and a presiding elder in the Iowa Legislature? There is no rule in the discipline against any minister accepting a nomination for office. There was none then. The very extract given by Mr. Roberts proves this; for it is said "a resolution passed the Conference" declaring "that any clergyman who should hereafter become a candidate" &c. If any "rule" existed at the time, why pass a resolution to take effect "hereafter?" Mr. Roberts says: "There is no reason to doubt that this is the universal judgment and feeling of the Methodist Episcopal Church on this subject, in all its bounds."

This, also, is language not warranted by the facts. Let the reader keep his eye upon these words, and observe that Mr. Roberts himself only a few months before was reading in the Oregon Conference, and seeking, in vain, to have the Conference adopt certain "axiomatic truths," on this subject, which he may have borrowed from the Trenton Gazette as far back as 1839. His failure to bring the Conference to approve his views he has not forgotten to this day. How then, can he say that "this is the universal judgment and feeling of the M. E. Church, on this subject, in all its bounds?" Why does he give the misstatements of the Gazette of more than twenty-four years before and say nothing about the action of his own Conference of 1863? He well knew that his own Conference had twice condemned his position at the last session before he [illegible] it as "the universal judgment and feeling of the M. E. Church in all its bounds." He knows now that at the session of 1864 the Conference went farther and declared the readiness of its members to serve their country in any capacity, civil or military, when lawfully called [illegible].

In giving the great principle of the M. E. Church on this subject, Mr. Roberts says: "Unavoidable necessity will cover all cases of drafting or military necessity." To represent that the principles or usages of the M. E. Church will not allow her ministers to volunteer to fight for their country in the hour of danger until they are drafted, is a gross slander upon one of the most loyal churches in the land. In his semi-centennial sermon before the late General Conference of the M. E. Church last May, Bishop Morris gives a vastly different showing of "the universal judgment and feeling of the church on that subject." He says:

"The spirit of Methodism is the spirit of patriotism.

After the Southern rebellion had developed itself in such magnitude that our President became satisfied that there was not power enough in the army, as it then existed, to put it down, he called for volunteers. And who responded? I answer; that, so far as we know, all churches did nobly; but it is true, nevertheless, that we have more than any other denomination in the service of our country. We have at least one hundred thousand [illegible] who have been mustered into the service of the United States, and many of our [illegible] also have gone, some as privates, some as [illegible], and a great many as chaplains; probably twice as many as from other denominations. [illegible] three members of this General Conference, regular ministers, who have done service for their country as colonels, moving at the head of their regiments, amid showers of leaden and iron hail, leading the van of the host amid the [illegible] of battle. These are unfailing indications that the spirit of Methodism is the spirit of patriotism."

[illegible] in showing of the facts, [illegible] Mr. Roberts' motives. His [illegible] arguments unsound. [illegible] though he [illegible] would work [illegible] with his approval by Peace [illegible] in the service of their [illegible] have misrepresented me and [illegible] in which I am a member. Both have [illegible] to injure the [illegible] an act of justice [illegible] the church and to the holy cause of [illegible] in which I have been an earnest and humble [illegible], I ask the publication of this reply in [illegible] and also in the other [illegible] papers of the State. Respectfully Yours,

THOMAS H. PEARNE.

DATES TO NOVEMBER 11.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—The Boston Advertiser has an account of the capture of the Florida by the Wachusett in Bahia harbor, Brazil. The privateer was cut out and carried off from the midst of the Brazilian fleet. The Wachusett steamed down the Bay with her prize in tow and was fired on from Fort St. Marcellus and pursued by three Brazilian men-of-war, which were left behind.

The Herald thinks the capture clearly illegal, being a breach of the laws of nations, which just now more than most powers, we are interested in upholding.

Nashville, Nov. 10.—Gen. Gillem has utterly routed the rebels in East Tennessee, driving them in great confusion [illegible]. His advance is ninety miles east of Knoxville. The rebels are at [illegible].

The report concerning the destruction of Government property at [illegible] was greatly exaggerated. No apprehensions are entertained in regard to its safety. The destruction of Government and private property on the river is complete, involving an immense loss. Our entire railroad and telegraph communications are complete and secure. Hood's exact whereabouts is unknown to the authorities. The Union moves well to be developed in the proper [illegible] and will electrify the country.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Commercial's dispatch says the President has already commenced the preparation of his Message. Abstracts of reports of the various bureaus have been furnished. Nothing has yet transpired as to the views it will express, though it is understood that the President will recommend the enactment of a law abolishing slavery everywhere in the United States immediately and forever. It is rumored there will be a change in the cabinet before next session of Congress. If Fessenden is re-elected to the Senate, a new Secretary of the Treasury must be chosen, and possibly other changes will be made.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Returns, not official, from 85 counties of Illinois give Lincoln 25,000 majority. Some Democratic counties have not yet been heard from. Nine Union and three Democratic Congressmen have been elected. Two districts doubtful.

Albany, Nov. 11.—Sufficient returns have been received that indicate beyond doubt the success of the Union ticket in New York, by from [illegible] to 7,000 majority.

New York, Nov. 11.—The [illegible] says the latest returns from counties of this State—nearly all official—show for Lincoln, 8,000; Fenton, 9,000.

Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, Nov. 10.—Returns from army say the Pennsylvania soldiers give 3,970 majority for Lincoln. Western regiments give small majorities for Lincoln. The total vote of the combined armies before Richmond and Petersburg show a majority of 18,000 for Lincoln.

Nashville, Nov. 10.—The election in East Tennessee is unanimously for Lincoln.

New York, Nov. 11.—The session of the rebel Congress commenced on Monday, the 7th. Sixty-two members were present. House bills to raise additional troops and to abolish promotion by seniority and make merit the basis, were referred to the military committee. A resolution was offered by Murray, from Tennessee, declaring that the Confederate States will neither aid nor sympathize with the establishment of monarchy in Mexico, was referred to Committee on Foreign Affairs. Swan, of Tennessee, offered a resolution declaring that no exigency exists, or is likely to occur, requiring negroes to be placed in the army. He also introduced a resolution to recall the commissioners from foreign nations. The discussion was brief but sharp. Miles, of South Carolina, opposed the proposition to arm the slaves. Foote favored it. He desired to await the decision of the enemy. If the question of employment of negroes was a feasible decision, it would appear in the result of the recent election. If Lincoln be elected, he would favor giving the President full power of employing slaves. He was ready to raise the black flag or anything before submission.

The bill to raise more men for the rebel army places all males between 18 and 45 in the army, and revokes all exemptions authorized, the President to make details when necessary.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Captain of the transport Relief, which arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 8th, reports that on the 7th he saw a large vessel on fire off Cape Hatteras.

Further particulars of the capture of Plymouth show that the town was entirely destroyed by the shelling from the fleet. The place is still held by gunboats, there being no troops there. The yellow fever has disappeared from Newbern.

The Herald's correspondent says: The movement of the rebels in the valley is to the right of Sheridan's position; it is now thought it is designed principally to procure cattle and other supplies much needed and not for the purpose of attempting to flank the Union army.

General Powell's cavalry started on an important mission on the 7th, but had not returned at the date of the latest dispatches.

The expedition sent out a few days ago, ascertained the rebels were still occupying their work of entrenchments and remain in considerable force in the vicinity of Milford. Their arrangements for a raid through Western Virginia on election day were completely frustrated by the movement of Gen. Kelley toward Morefield.

Capt. Badger, of Powell's staff, and eleven others who were made prisoners by Mosby, succeeded a few nights ago in taking their guard and making their escape.

The Commercial's special insists McClellan has resigned his commission in the army and that his resignation was read at the War Department yesterday.

The New Orleans Times has advices from Fort Morgan to November 1st. Houses are springing up about Forts Morgan and Gaines to be occupied by the troops. There is a saw mill in operation at Fort Gaines. Damages to the forts are now being repaired. They are now considered stronger than when the fleet passed. Health of the troops is improving.

Some of the Richmond papers comment severely on Davis' message, charging him with obscurity in some portions, in referring to the arming of the slaves and the proposed interference with the press.

The report of the rebel Secretary of the Treasury is very doleful and says they can only obtain one hundred and thirty-five dollars in currency (equal to six dollars in specie) for $1,000 in Confederate bonds. The public debt stands at $114,737,028 without including the foreign [illegible] debts.

Davis declares that Grant's, Sherman's, and Bank's campaigns are all failures, and declares that Atlanta and Richmond are not vital points; that the fall of Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah and Mobile would not conquer the Confederacy—independence alone will secure peace.

The Macon Telegraph says of the [illegible] army slaves: That unless the President and Congress determine to blot out the landmarks of the past, we warn them to beware of such an experiment. It would virtually accomplish what the enemy is struggling through four years of war for; it would be adopting the spirit of abolitionism.

The correspondent of the South Carolina Mercury says: The lower wards of Charleston are virtually ruined in consequence of shelling.

The Wilmington Journal expresses confidence in their ability to repulse our fleet, but says more land forces are needed.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Returns from forty two counties, some incomplete, give Lincoln 42,711; McClellan, 25,70[illegible]; Lincoln's majority [illegible], 17,0[illegible].

Returns thus far received in the State of Nevada give Lincoln, 3,100, with about 300 soldiers' votes to hear from.

Smoke and Smokers Diminishing.—The heavy tax imposed on tobacco has seriously interfered with the trade in that article. In New York, the number of cigars manufactured [illegible] before the tax was imposed, was [illegible]. Some 2,000 journeymen were employed [illegible] these, and their salaries ranged from $7 to $[illegible] per week. Now a large number of journeymen are out of employment, and [illegible] to follow other pursuits. The most remarkable result of the tax is that it has led nearly one half the smokers to abandon the use of cigars. It is estimated that there are 500,000 of the [illegible] consumers [illegible] abstaining from [illegible]. The fact is proved by the proportionate decrease in the manufacture of cigars. [illegible]

The number of slaves set free by the events of the war is estimated by competent Northern authorities at 1,500,000. Jeff Davis estimates the whole number at 2,000,000.

News of To-day.—We gather from the dispatches that New York has certainly gone for Lincoln, though not by a large majority. Any majority in that State shows a very wholesome Union sentiment in the country at large, or else it would be impossible to overcome the McClellan vote of New York city, Albany, and other large cities through the State, that must amount, in all, to near 50,000 of Democratic majority.

Our forces in Western Tennessee have been blessed with victory over Forrest and his forces and are driving them.

General McClellan seems to have resigned his commission on election day. There was some thought of dramatic effect, probably intended in having the wires flash the news to his supporters at the polls, that he was out of a job, thus urging them to more effective support; but the [illegible] very signally failed of the desired effect. The day seems to have done better for Little Mac than we anticipated, and this will doubtless allay [illegible] after defeat, to a small extent. Mr. Lincoln is not only re-elected, but the coming Congress is with his Administration, and supports [illegible] policy, by a large majority.

Our navy has carried off the Florida, though at the expense of our neutrality with Brazil, for which, however, we have English precedent, as we have for every mean thing anybody does in [illegible] ways. Anyhow, the Florida will not hurt any American ships while the question is being [illegible].

We hope the copperheads won't pretend that the soldiers didn't vote as they pleased, since so many of them voted their ticket. There is freedom left yet to the soldiers.

California Figs.—We were favored yesterday with a box of California figs of this year's crop, from the Hutchinson New England orchard. These figs are packed in the usual looking boxes, and would be taken for the foreign article until tasted, when, from their superior freshness and other good qualities, one would suspect that they might be native. They can be found at Fay's fruit store. Try 'em.

The General says he rode through Powder River and Grande Ronde Valleys, and they are good for 300 majority of Democratic gain. DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND THROAT.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8, 1861. Scovill & Co.—Gents: I feel it a duty I owe to [illegible] to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying! I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used in cases of [illegible] with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pitkin, [illegible] street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., General Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco. aug25

San Francisco Legal Tender
New York Gold Quotation

A Gang of Boy Thieves.—The point has about culminated, which has been feared for some time, concerning the wayward course of some Portland small boys. The way the matter has started in for ventilation produces a startling character of the existing circumstances to be revealed. The intimations have been leaking out for several days, when finally last evening one of the young burglars was caught, and on the ground that his confederates had not divided with him the spoils of the last "pull," made a clean breast of the entire schemes of the youthful gang, and disclosed the most extraordinary plans of co-operation for carrying on the thieving business that it is possible to conceive of, from those so young. According to his statements their league was bound by an oath, governed by a written constitution, and regulated in the ordinary style with by-laws. Their chief rendezvous was in the garret of the Pioneer Hotel, whither they have slyly crept, singly, at all hours of the day and night, unapprehended, notwithstanding it is the busiest corner, and the greatest scene of every day life in the city. The officers have taken hold of the matter and the end will undoubtedly disclose a most singular case, without a parallel in the history of our country, putting a shade effectually upon life in the notorious Five Points at New York city, in the days of the Old Brewery. It is thought that the oldest of this infant gang will not exceed sixteen summers.

Inducements for Volunteers.—The liberal bounties offered by the Government, and the State of Oregon, should be considered as a good inducement for Volunteering, to say nothing of the satisfaction it would be of serving the Government under a picked officer. Whatever may have been said heretofore, regarding the character of some of the Captains in Oregon regiments, who may have resigned to prevent an ignominious discharge, it cannot be said but that Governor Gibbs has exercised great discretion in his late appointments to the recruiting service. Capt. W. S. Powell, who has received the appointment for this district, is well known in Portland and throughout the county of Multnomah as an A No. 1 gentleman, and we are gratified to see his recruiting so successfully appreciated. Every person mustered on his roll can rest contented that he will be treated like a man, as a soldier should be, and not fear that he is exiling himself for three years, "unless sooner discharged," by entering the field. We venture to say, that if all the officers prove themselves to be as worthy as Captain Powell will, desertions will be less, and Court Martials decidedly few.

The Police Court of a Monday.—Some of the less enterprising of our population got drunk on Sunday, instead of going to Church. They followed the Byronic prescription of

Wine and women mirth and laughter
Sermons and soda water the day after.

It would have been better had some of the parties arraigned yesterday taken the sermons one day earlier. There was James Neer, with his sore head, who so frightfully woke the halls in the Oregonian building with his yells on Sunday night; unfortunate fellow, he found himself in the Police Court, and when Judge McCoy had "heard him" he was sentenced to the penalty of $10 and costs for his violent and disorderly conduct. He paid up and departed, it is hoped to be a better man next Sunday. Thomas Caffy had also been drunk and disorderly, and in addition to the customary "blues" paid a fine of $5 and costs, which "let him out." James Holden and John Karne, likewise d. a d., were each committed to jail for a term of three days, there to sober off for another exploit.

The Circuit Court.—The November term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah county, Judge Shattuck presiding, met at the Court House in this city at 10 o'clock A. M. yesterday. The Grand Jury was organized by the appointment of A. J. Dufer foreman, the list is as follows: Henry Law, Eli Morrill, Henry Scheiland, Israel Graden, Wm. Lewis, Wm. Doublelower. The following Attorneys were in attendance: Wm. Strong, Wm Page, W. W. Chapman, Lansing Stout, B. Freidenrich, L. F. Mosher, D. Logan, John Catlin, M. F. Mulkey, J. H. Mitchell, J. N. Dolph, J. F. McCoy, Thomas Chapman, E. Hamilton, Leopold Wolfe, R. W. Hodgkinson, J. J. Hoffman, C. H. Larrabee, and A. J. Lawrence Vancouver. The docket was called, and motions and demurrers heard and disposed of. Messrs. M. Kline and S. A. Gladstone were appointed and sworn as special bailiffs for the term. Court adjourned to meet at 10 A. M. to-day.

Steamer Relief, for Salem.—This morning the steamer Rival will connect with the Relief, which last steamer will start for Salem, from Canemah, and go through to-day. Boats will run frequently this week on the upper Willamette, and early next week, if the river remains up—as there is now every prospect of its doing—the P. T. Co. will advertise regular trips for the season. Large amounts of freight are waiting shipment here, and the produce of the upper country is accumulating for shipment.

Theatrical.—Lesbia was produced last evening to a good house considering the very stormy weather. We had but little opportunity to judge of the performance, but those who did were pleased with the play. Miss Ince was well received, and Waldron as the "Old man" was a great success. Mr. Meredith appeared in a striking and prominent part, and took well. Mrs. Getzler, as the daughter of the Chief of the dreaded Council of Ten, was quite a favorite. The play will be repeated to-night.

Mr. Pearne.—We learn that Rev. Thomas H. Pearne leaves to-day for the East, on the Brother Jonathan. We are not aware how long he may be absent, or what his intentions are, but we are confident that he will bear with him a sincere interest in the best welfare of Oregon, and a deep devotion to the Union cause, and that he will be found on the side of patriotic and christian duty, wherever he may be. He carries with him the best wishes of many friends.

Going Home on Furlough.—Lieutenant Davidson of the Fourth Regiment California Volunteers, living at Sutter Creek, Amador county, California; Corporal Charles McDerdoff, of Camp Seco, and Privates John Tucker of Sutter Creek, Nelson Cook of Volcano, and James L. Pickett of Ione City, all belonging with Company D, were recently discharged from the service in this district at the expiration of their terms, but having re-enlisted in their old regiment, are granted leave to visit their homes.

Putting on Airs.—Dublin came out in a stylish overcoat, with cape and long skirts, on Sunday, and stood about the streets with the air of a genuine aristocrat; eating apples and indulging in other luxuries, but he was doomed to fall. "The coat he wore had been purloined, and was merely "put on," so poor Patrick was arrested for the abstract, and locked up yesterday for his appearance on the charge of theft, before the Recorder to-day.

Broke a Shaft.—The shaft of the steamer Rescue was broken on the last trip to Monticello, when just below St. Helens. The trip was completed, and the steamer returned disabled to this city, but will now lay up about one week for repairs. The old shaft was too small, and will be made larger at the present opportunity.

The steamship Brother Jonathan will leave this day for Victoria and San Francisco. Rather, the O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Julia will leave Couch's wharf at 4 o'clock P. M. to-day, with passengers and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express for the steamship, which will leave the mouth of the Willamette for ports as above.

Little Mac's Admirers.—The gentlemanly Deputy at Uncle Sam's P. O., in this city, informs us that he has received instructions from Little Mac. to forward all his mail matter that may happen to come to this office to Windsor, Canada. It will be seen that he has emigrated.

Sewing Machine Agency.—Mr. W. Church, 76 Front street, has been appointed Agent for the sale of the Singer's Sewing Machines, in this part of the country. He has already received a large invoice of those machines per steamship, and invites the people to inspect them.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habits suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

AN HONEST DEACON.—Deacon N——, was an honest old codger, a kind neighbor, and a good Christian, believing in the Presbyterian creed to the fullest extent; but lackaday! the Deacon would occasionally get exceedingly mellow, and almost every Sunday at dinner he would indulge in his cider brandy to such an extent that it was with difficulty that he reached his pew in the broad aisle, near the pulpit, and the minister and village squire. One Sunday morning the parson told his flock that he would preach a sermon touching many glaring sins so conspicuous among them, and he hoped that they would listen attentively, and not flinch if he happened to be too severe.

The afternoon came, and the house was full—everybody turned out to see their neighbors "dressed down" by the minister, who after opening his sermon commenced upon the transgressors with a loud voice, with the question—

"Where is the drunkard?"

A solemn pause succeeded the inquiry, when up rose Deacon N——, his face red from the frequent draughts from his favorite drink, and steadying himself as well as he could by the pew of the rail, looked up and replied in a trembling and piping voice:

"Here I am!"

Of course a consternation in the congregation was the result of the honest deacon's response; however, the parson went on with his remarks, as he had written them, commenting severely upon the drunkard, and closed by warning him to forsake at once such evil habits, if he would hope for salvation, and flee from the wrath to come.

"And now," asked the preacher, in his loudest tones, "where is the hypocrite?"

A pause, but no one responded. Eyes were turned upon this man and that man, but the glances seemed to be directed to the squire's pew, and, indeed, the parson seemed to squint hard in that direction. The deacon saw where the shaft was aimed, and rising once more, leaned over his pew to the squire, whom he tapped on the shoulder, and thus addressed him:

"Come, squire, why don't you get up? I did when he called on me."

THE LAST MAN.—Fighting to the "last man" is what a lady, in one of the newspapers, boldly objects to. She remarks, and in that sensible manner which is peculiar to the sex when a little excited: "What would be the country to me or any other woman if the last man were gone? What would it be if only the last man remained? Good gracious! what a pulling of caps and disarranging of ringlets there would be on his behalf!" The troubles so comically portrayed by Hood, in his poem of "The Last Man," when the last man "nimbly whipped his tackle out" and despatched to the gallows tree his companion, leaving him sole monarch of all he surveyed, were as nothing besides those the last man would have to endure if all the women were still here, and individually, as well as en masse, insisted on masculine sympathy and consolation. But courage, ladies! There is no danger of the last man being wanted as long as the last woman remains to plead for his exemption.—N. Y. Sunday Times.

WANTED A FURLOUGH.—A few months ago a high private of extraordinary dimensions lumbered into the presence of Gen. Thomas and asked for a furlough, adding, "General, I wish to go home and see my wife."

"How long is it since you have seen your wife?"

"Why!" he answered, "I haven't seen my wife for over three months."

"Three months!" remarked Gen. Thomas; "three months—why, I haven't seen my wife in three years."

"Well, that may be," rejoined the other, "but you see, General, me and my wife ain't of that sort."

I have not ascertained whether the H. P. was the recipient of a furlough or not.

HEAVY FAILURES.—J. Cohn & Co. failed on Monday, attachments having been issued against them to the amount of $36,449 82.—S. F. [illegible]

LE DOYEN'S
SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE

CLEANSE THE BLOOD,

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples, sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal, being chemically combined with Iodine; it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving stone in the Bladder and calculus of the Kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, &c., &c.

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel; Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC, AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED not to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
